I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

_____ The government alleges Mr. Santiago was found in the United States after deportation on August 17, 2007 in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326.

Mr. Flores-Savala has entered a plea of not guilty.

II.

MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

Mr. Santiago requests the following discovery. His request is not limited to those items of which the prosecutor is aware. It includes all discovery listed below that is in the custody, control, care, or knowledge of any "closely related investigative [or other] agencies." See United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989).

1. The Defendant's Statements. The government must disclose to Mr. Santiago all copies of any written or recorded statements made by Mr. Santiago; the substance of any statements made by Mr. Santiago that the government intends to offer in evidence at trial; any response by Mr. Santiago to interrogation; the substance of any oral statements that the government intends to introduce at trial and any written summaries of Mr. Santiago's oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of the government agent; any response to any Miranda warnings that may have been given to Mr. Santiago; and any other statements by Mr. Santiago. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and (B). The Advisory Committee Notes and the 1991 amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the government must reveal all Mr. Santiago's statements, whether oral or written, regardless of whether the government intends to make any use of those statements.

Mr. Santiago specifically requests a copy of the audio recording of any deportation proceeding.

2. Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. Mr. Santiago also specifically requests that all arrest reports, notes and dispatch or any other tapes that relate to the circumstances surrounding his arrest or any questioning, if such reports have not already been produced in their entirety, be turned over to him. This request includes, but is not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents in which statements of Mr. Santiago or any other discoverable material is contained. Mr. Santiago includes in this request any redacted portions of the Report of Investigation ("ROI") and any subsequent ROIs that the case agent or any other agent has written. This is all discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and (B) and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). See also Loux v. United States, 389 F.2d 911 (9th Cir. 1968). Arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to Mr. Santiago are available under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and (B), Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(h). Preservation of rough notes is requested, whether or not the government deems them discoverable.

3. Brady Material. Mr. Santiago requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to him on the issue of guilt and/or that affects the credibility of the government's case. Impeachment and exculpatory evidence both fall within Brady's definition of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

4. Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence. As discussed above, any information that may result in a more favorable sentence must also be disclosed pursuant to Brady, 373 U.S. 83. The government must disclose any cooperation or attempted cooperation by Mr. Santiago, as well as any information that could affect any base offense level or specific offense characteristic under Chapter Two of the United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual (“Guidelines”). Also included in this request is any information relevant to a Chapter Three adjustment, a determination of Mr. Santiago’s criminal history, or any other application of the Guidelines.

5. The Defendant’s Prior Record. Evidence of a prior record is available under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D). Mr. Santiago specifically requests a complete copy of any criminal record.

6. Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. Evidence of prior similar acts is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609. In addition, under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b), “upon request of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the general nature . . .” of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) at trial. Sufficient notice requires the government to “articulate precisely the evidential hypothesis by which a fact of consequence may be inferred from the other acts evidence.” United States v. Mehrmanesh, 689 F.2d 822, 830 (9th Cir. 1982) (emphasis added; internal citations omitted); see also United States v. Brooke, 4 F.3d 1480, 1483 (9th Cir. 1993) (reaffirming Mehrmanesh and reversing convictions).

7. Evidence Seized. Evidence seized as a result of any search, either warrantless or with a warrant, is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

8. Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defense specifically requests that all dispatch tapes or any other physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the possession, custody, or care of the government and that relate to the arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this case be preserved. This request includes, but is not limited to, Mr. Santiago’s personal effects and any evidence seized from Mr. Santiago or any third party. This request also

1 includes any material or percipient witnesses who might be deported or otherwise likely to become
2 unavailable (e.g. undocumented aliens and transients). Mr. Santiago requests that the prosecutor be 3 ordered to question all the agencies and individuals involved in the prosecution and investigation of 4 this case to determine if such evidence exists, and if it does exist, to inform those parties to preserve
5 any such evidence.

6 9. Henthorn Material. Mr. Santiago requests that the Assistant United States Attorney
7 (“AUSA”) assigned to this case oversee (not personally conduct) a review of all personnel files of 8 each agent involved in the present case for impeachment material. See Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S.
9 437, 438 (1995) (holding that “the individual prosecutor has a duty to learn of any favorable
10 evidence known to the others acting on the government’s behalf in the case, including the police”);
11 United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991). This request includes, but is not limited to,
12 any complaints filed (by a member of the public, by another agent, or any other person) against the 13 agent, whether or not the investigating authority has taken any action, as well as any matter for which 14 a disciplinary review was undertaken, whether or not any disciplinary action was ultimately 15 recommended. Mr. Santiago further requests production of any such information at least one week
16 prior to the motion hearing and two weeks prior to trial. If the prosecutor is uncertain whether 17 certain information should be disclosed pursuant to this request, this information should be produced
18 to the Court in advance of the motion hearing and the trial for an in camera inspection.

19 10. Tangible Objects. Mr. Santiago requests the opportunity to inspect, copy, and test, as 20 necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, 21 documents, fingerprint analyses, or copies of portions thereof, that are material to the defense or 22 intended for use in the government’s case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to Mr. Santiago.
23 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E). Specifically, Mr. Santiago requests color copies of all photographs
24 in the government’s possession of the alleged narcotics and the vehicle in which the narcotics were 25 found.

26 11. Expert Witnesses. Mr. Santiago requests the name, qualifications, and a written summary
27 of the testimony of any person that the government intends to call as an expert witness during its case
28 in chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G). This summary should include a description of the witness’

1 opinion(s), as well as the bases and the reasons for the opinion(s). See United States v. Duvall, 272
2 F.3d 825 (7th Cir. 2001) (finding that government's written expert notice did not adequately
3 summarize or describe police detective's testimony in drug prosecution where notice provided only
4 a list of the general subject matters to be covered and failed to identify what opinion the expert
5 would offer on those subjects). This request includes, but is not limited to, disclosure of the 6 qualifications of any government witness who will testify that he understands and/or speaks Spanish
7 or any other foreign language that may have been used during the course of an interview with 8 Ms. Santiago or any other witness. Mr. Santiago requests the notice of expert testimony be provided 9 at a minimum of three weeks prior to trial so that the defense can properly prepare to address and 10 respond to this testimony, including obtaining its own expert and/or investigating the opinions, 11 credentials of the government's expert and obtain a hearing in advance of trial to determine the 12 admissibility of qualifications of any expert. See Kumho v. Carmichael Tire Co., 526 U.S. 137, 119
13 S.Ct. 1167, 1176 (1999) (trial judge is "gatekeeper" and must determine, reliability and relevancy 14 of expert testimony and such determinations may require "special briefing or other proceedings")

15 12. Impeachment evidence. Mr. Santiago requests any evidence that any prospective 16 government witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and 17 whether any witness has made a statement favorable to Mr. Santiago. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609
18 and 613. Such evidence is discoverable under Brady, 373 U.S. at 83. See United States v. Strifler,
19 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988) (witness' prior record); Thomas v. United States, 343 F.2d 49 (9th 20 Cir. 1965) (evidence that detracts from a witness' credibility).

21 13. Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. Mr. Santiago requests
22 any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities
23 for any criminal conduct. United States v. Chitty, 760 F.2d 425 (2d Cir. 1985).

24 14. Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. Mr. Santiago requests evidence that any prospective
25 government witness is biased or prejudiced against Mr. Santiago, or has a motive to falsify or distort
26 his or her testimony. Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39 (1987); Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197.

27 15. Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Veracity.
28 Ms. Flores requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, tending

1 to show that any prospective witness's ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth
2 is impaired; and any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance,
3 or has ever been an alcoholic. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197; Chavis v. North Carolina, 637 F.2d 213, 224
4 (4th Cir. 1980).

5 16. Witness Addresses. Mr. Santiago requests the name and last known address of each
6 prospective government witness. See United States v. Napue, 834 F.2d 1311 (7th Cir. 1987); United
7 States v. Tucker, 716 F.2d 576 (9th Cir. 1983) (failure to interview government witnesses by counsel
8 is ineffective); United States v. Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense has equal right
9 to talk to witnesses). Mr. Santiago also requests the name and last known address of every witness
10 to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will 11 not be called as a government witness. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453 (9th Cir. 1984).

12 17. Names of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. Mr. Santiago requests the name of any 13 witness who made any arguably favorable statement concerning Mr. Santiago or who could not 14 identify him or who was unsure of his identity or participation in the crime charged. Jackson v.
15 Wainwright, 390 F.2d 288 (5th Cir. 1968); Chavis, 637 F.2d at 223; Jones v. Jago, 575 F.2d
16 1164, 1168 (6th Cir. 1978); Hudson v. Blackburn, 601 F.2d 785 (5th Cir. 1979), cert. denied, 444 U.S.
17 1086 (1980).

18 18. Statements Relevant to the Defense. Mr. Santiago requests disclosure of any statement
19 that may be "relevant to any possible defense or contention" that he might assert. United States v.
20 Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105 (9th Cir. 1982). This includes grand jury transcripts that are relevant to 21 the defense motion to dismiss the indictment.

22 19. Jencks Act Material. Mr. Santiago requests production in advance of the motion hearing
23 or trial of all material, including dispatch tapes, that the government must produce pursuant to the 24 Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2. A verbal acknowledgment that "rough"
25 notes constitute an accurate account of the witness' interview is sufficient for the report or notes to 26 qualify as a statement under section 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92
27 (1963); see also United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) (holding that interview notes 28 constitutes Jencks material when an agent reviews notes with the subject of the interview); see also

1 United States v. Riley, 189 F.3d 802, 806-808 (9th Cir. 1999). Advance production will avoid the
2 possibility of delay of the motion hearing or trial to allow Mr. Santiago to investigate the Jencks
3 material. Mr. Santiago requests pre-trial disclosure of such statements to avoid unnecessary recesses
4 and delays and to allow defense counsel to prepare for, and use properly any Jencks statements
5 during cross-examination.

6 20. Giglio Information. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972),
7 Mr. Santiago requests all statements and/or promises, expressed or implied, made to any government
8 witnesses, in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information that could arguably
9 be used for the impeachment of any government witnesses.

10 21. Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. Mr. Santiago requests discovery
11 regarding any express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, present, or 12 future compensation, or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any implicit 13 understanding relating to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, between any 14 prospective government witness and the government (federal, state and/or local). This request also 15 includes any discussion with a potential witness about or advice concerning any immigration
16 benefits, any contemplated prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no bargain was made
17 or the advice not followed.

18 22. Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. Mr. Santiago requests disclosure of the names 19 and addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case, and in 20 particular, disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or otherwise
21 participated in the crime charged against Mr. Santiago. The government must disclose the 22 informant's identity and location, as well as disclose the existence of any other percipient witness
23 unknown or unknowable to the defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 52, 61-62 (1957). The 24 government must disclose any information derived from informants that exculpates or tends to 25 exculpate Mr. Santiago.

26 23. Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. Mr. Santiago requests disclosure of any 27 information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio, 405 U.S.

24. Such information would include what, if any, inducements, favors, payments or threats were made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

25. Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest. Mr. Santiago requests all citizen complaints and other related internal affairs documents involving any of the immigration officers or other law enforcement officers who were involved in the investigation, arrest and interrogation of Mr. Santiago. See Pitchess v. Superior Court, 11 Cal. 3d 531, 539 (1974). Because of the sensitive nature of these documents, defense counsel will be unable to procure them from any other source.

26. Performance Goals and Policy Awards. Mr. Santiago requests disclosure of information regarding standards used for measuring, compensating or reprimanding the conduct of all law enforcement officers involved in the case (Customs, Border Patrol, INS, etc.) to the extent such information relates to the arrest of undocumented immigrants. This request specifically includes information concerning performance goals, policy awards, and the standards used by DHS for commending, demoting, or promoting agents for their work with immigration crimes.

27. Reports of Scientific Tests or Examinations. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(F), Mr. Santiago requests the reports of all tests and examinations conducted upon the evidence in this case, including, but not limited to, any fingerprint testing done upon any evidence seized in this case, that is within the possession, custody, or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government, and that are material to the preparation of the defense or are intended for use by the government as evidence in chief at the trial.

28. Brady Information. The defendant requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the government's case. Under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

29. Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. The government must produce evidence of prior similar acts under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and any prior convictions which would

1 be used to impeach as noted in Fed. R. Crim. P. 609. In addition, under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b), “upon
2 request of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of 3 the general nature” of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b)
4 at trial. The defendant requests notice two weeks before trial to give the defense time to investigate
5 and prepare for trial.

6 30. Residual Request. The defendant intends by this discovery motion to invoke his rights
7 to discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the 8 Constitution and laws of the United States.

9 III.

10 MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

11 Mr. Santiago has not yet received a copy of the audio tape of his removal proceeding or 12 viewed the government's viewed the government's physical evidence against him. As new 13 information surfaces – via discovery provided by government, defense investigation, or an order of 14 this court – the defense may need to file further motions or to supplement existing motions.
15 Accordingly, Mr. Santiago requests leave to file further motions at a later date.

16 IV.

17 CONCLUSION

18 For the reasons stated, Mr. Santiago requests this Court grant his motions.
